

Greetings to the pupils of Crompton House!

My name's Tom Huddleston and I'm the author of several books including the futuristic adventure story FLOODWORLD and its sequel DUSTROAD, plus several instalments in the STAR WARS: ADVENTURES IN WILD SPACE and WARHAMMER ADVENTURES series.

I just wanted to wish you all a great big welcome back to school after an unexpectedly long break! I hope you're all looking forward to getting stuck into your lessons.

Even more importantly, I hope you're all planning to read some really great books this term. There's so much fabulous fiction out there at the moment so I'm sure you'll find a story that's just right for you, whether you're looking for something exciting or dramatic or scary or funny or silly or political or romantic or uplifting or serious or action-packed or historical

Maybe you'll even be inspired to write some fantastic stories of your own. In my experience, writing can be a great way to relax and feel positive - if the world's stressing you out, sit down and invent a better one!

Have a great term, and happy reading!
