

A fantastic course that immerses you in the world of Drama and Theatre. You will develop a critical eye on performance and Theatre looking from the perspective of a performer, designer, critic and director. This course is not just about becoming an actor but can open the door to any career where presentation skills, communications skills, problem solving skills and team building skills are vital.

LEARNING JOURNEY KS5

