

1. Women's Suffrage

	R	A	G
I can explain what life for women was like in the 19 th and early 20 th century.
I can explain the difference between the Suffragists and Suffragettes.
I can explain the significance of Emily Davison.
I can explain different interpretations of the movement.
I can explain why historians have revised the interpretation of the women's suffrage movement.

2. Causes World War One

	R	A	G
I can explain the significance of the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand.
I can describe the background to Europe in the lead up to WW1.
I can explain how imperialism increased tension.
I can explain how the alliances created the July Crisis and increased tension.
I can use causation words to explain the start of WW1.

3. Experience of World War One

	R	A	G
I can describe recruitment campaigns for WW1.
I can describe trenches and weapons in WW1.
I can explain the role of soldiers from the wider Empire.
I can explain life on the Home Front during WW1.

4. The Holocaust

	R	A	G
I can describe the context of the Holocaust.
I can explain the reasons for the Nazis' rise to power.
I can explain what early persecution was like in Germany.
I can explain what ghettos were and why they were used.
I can describe how other groups were persecuted by the Nazis.
I can explain the significance of the Hoefle Telegram.
I can explain the difference and features of Concentration and Extermination Camps.

5. Windrush Generation

	R	A	G
I can describe what migration was like in the modern world.
I can explain why immigrants came to Britain after WW2.
I can describe the experience of migrants in the 1960s.
I can describe the experience of migrants in the 1970s.
I can describe the experience of migrants in the 1980s-90s.

6. Swinging sixties

	R	A	G
I can describe life in post-war Britain.
I can explain what the new concept of a teenager was in the 1960s.
I can describe the music and counter-culture in the 1960s.
I can explain what 'permissive society' was.
I can explain how women's rights developed in the 1960s.
I can explain how the Cold War shaped the lives of the people in the 1960s.

