

Red	Amber	Green
-----	-------	-------

Global systems and global governance : Global systems and global governance

G1 I can define globalisation and outline its different dimensions.
G2 I can outline the different factors that influence globalisation.
G3 I can define the term interdependence
G4 I can evaluate the issues associated with unequal flows of people, money, ideas and technology on a named country.
G5 I can explain how the internet can influence geopolitical events
G6 I can discuss the impacts of a single-product economy.
G7 I can describe and explain patterns of international trade and investment
G8 I can discuss the advantages and disadvantages of international trade and investment.
G9 I can explain the terms of trade on an international scale.
G10 I can discuss different trading agreements and explain their impact on different economies and societies.
G11 I can explain the role of the EU in trade agreements and governance.
G12 I can explain the reasons for the growth of TNCs and assess their impacts.
G13 I can evaluate the impact of a named TNC on those countries in which it operates.
G14 I can discuss the role of trade and fair trade in the context of development.
G15 I can explain the geographical consequences of global food systems.
G16 I can evaluate the impacts of one food commodity on lives across the globe.
G17 I can explain what is meant by global governance and discuss the norms, laws and institutions associated with it.
G18 I can discuss the issues associated with attempts at global governance.
G19 I can discuss the inequalities and injustices in global governance.
G20 I can explain the concept of 'the global commons' including the rights and benefits associated with it.
G21 I can outline the contemporary geography of Antarctica and its fishing, whaling and mineral resources.
G22 I can explain the threats to Antarctica from scientific research, climate change, tourism and fishing, whaling and mineral exploitation.

