

UK Politics Prime Minister and the Executive

Key Content	Classwork	Revision
Prime Minister and the Executive- The structure, role and powers of the Executive
1. I can explain the structure of the Executive, including Prime Minister, the Cabinet, junior ministers and government departments.
2. I can explain the main roles of the Executive, including proposing legislation, proposing a budget and making policy decisions within laws and budget.
3. I can explain the main powers of the Executive, including Royal Prerogative powers, initiation of legislation and secondary legislative power.
Prime Minister and the Executive- The concept of ministerial responsibility
1. I can explain the concept of individual ministerial responsibility.
2. I can explain the concept of collective ministerial responsibility.
Prime Minister and the Executive- The Prime Minister and the Cabinet
1. I can explain the factors governing the Prime Minister's selection of ministers.
2. I can explain the factors that affect the relationship between the Cabinet and the Prime Minister.
3. I can explain the balance of power between the Prime Minister and the Cabinet.
Prime Minister and the Executive- The powers of the Prime Minister and the Cabinet to dictate events and determine policy
1. I can understand and explain the influence of one Prime Minister from 1945 to 1997 and one post-1997 Prime Minister.
2. I can explain events and policy and can give examples that illustrate both control and a lack of control for one Prime Minister pre-1997 and post-1997.		