

Red	Amber	Green
-----	-------	-------

1.2 Religious Concepts and Life: 1.2A Religious Concept - Nature of God

1. I can explain issues related to male language about God
2. I can explain pastoral benefits related to male language of God
3. I can explain challenges related to male language of God
4. I can explain Sallie McFague's views on God as mother
5. I can evaluate the validity of referring to God as mother
6. I can explain issues related to the impassibility of God
7. I can explain modern views (JMoltmann) on a suffering God
8. I can evaluate the theological implications of a suffering God

1.2 Religious Concepts and Life: 1.2B Religious Concept - The Trinity

1. I can explain the need for the doctrine of the Trinity
2. I can explain issues related to divinity and pre-existence of Christ
3. I can explain Christ as co-equal and co-eternal with the Father
4. I can explain what is meant by the filioque controversy
5. I can evaluate monotheistic claims of the doctrine of the Trinity
6. I can evaluate to what extent the doctrine of Trinity is necessary to the Christian concept of God

1.2 Religious Concepts and Life: 1.2C Religious Concept - the Atonement

1. I can explain the Atonement theory: Jesus as Christus Victor
2. I can explain the Atonement theory: Jesus as divine-human substitution
3. I can explain the Atonement theory: Jesus as moral example
4. I can evaluate to what extent the 3 Atonement theories are contradictory
5. I can explain underlying assumptions about the need for divine forgiveness
6. I can explain the conflict between the wrath and love of God in the Atonement
7. I can evaluate the extent to which the 3 theories suggest the Christian God is cruel

1.2 Religious Concepts and Life: 1.2D Religious Life - faith and works

1. I can explain Luther's argument for justification by faith alone
2. I know and can discuss Romans 1:17 & 5:1, Ephesians 2:8-9, Galatians 2:16
3. I can explain why Luther rejected the teaching of James 2:24

Teacher Comment: