

YEAR 8 Spring 1

'An ambitious curriculum that meets the needs of all'

Medium Term Planning - Topic: Human Rights

Curriculum Intent	Why do we teach this to students? This topic allows pupils to understand what is meant by Human Rights. They will be able to examine the world around them and see how human rights are being put into action / being breached. Pupils will be able to give their opinion on key human rights issues today. Pupils will also consider religious views on each of the human rights topics. They will understand how religious beliefs correspond to these key ideas. Why do we teach this now? Students will have completed the Faith in Action unit where they will have learnt about the life of Jesus and key beliefs. These key beliefs can be linked to the Human Rights unit so that students can apply religious views to topics covered. Students are also introduced to additional religious beliefs to further their learning. Concept of 'prejudice' that was covered in Year 7 in The Island Scheme of Work lesson 5 revisited in this unit under lesson 4 'Prejudice and Discrimination.' Links to the Oldham Local Agreed Syllabus: 3.12 – Religion and Human Rights: Do religions support or undermine rights in today's world? Links to the Manchester Diocesan Agreed Syllabus: Specification aims: The principal aim of RE is to engage pupils in systematic enquiry into significant human questions which religion and worldviews address, so that they can develop the understanding and skills needed to appreciate and appraise varied responses to these questions, as well as develop responses of their own. (Manchester Diocesan Agreed Syllabus) Assessment Objectives: As the most up to date document out assessment objectives are taken from our Locally Agreed Syllabus. These reflect the 3 main assessment objectives of our diocesan agreed Syllabus. Make sense of a range of religious and non-religious beliefs, so that they can: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - identify, describe, explain and analyse beliefs and concepts in the context of living religions, using appropriate vocabulary; - explain how and why these beliefs are understood in different ways, by individuals and within communities; - recognise how and why sources of authority (e.g. texts, teachings, traditions, leaders) are used, expressed and interpreted in different ways, developing skills of interpretation. Understand the impact and significance of religious and non-religious beliefs, so that they can: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - examine and explain how and why people express their beliefs in diverse ways; - recognise and account for ways in which people put their beliefs into action in diverse ways, in their everyday lives, within their communities and in the wider world; - appreciate and appraise the significance of different ways of life and ways of expressing meaning. Make connections between religious and non-religious beliefs, concepts, practices and ideas studied, so that they can: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - evaluate, reflect on and enquire into key concepts and questions studied, responding thoughtfully and creatively, giving good reasons for their responses; - challenge the ideas they study, and consider how these ideas might challenge their own thinking, articulating beliefs, values and commitments clearly in response; - discern possible connections between the ideas studied and their own ways of understanding the world, expressing their critical responses and personal reflections with increasing clarity and understanding.
Skills/Assessment objective links
Spiritual, moral, social, and cultural development	SMSC: Spiritual: The ability to be reflective about their own beliefs, religious or otherwise, that inform their perspective on life and their interest in and respect for different people's faiths, feelings and values. sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them. Moral: acceptance and engagement with the fundamental British values: individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs; they develop and demonstrate skills and attitudes that will allow them to participate fully in and contribute positively to life in modern Britain. Cultural: understanding and appreciation of the range of different cultures within school and further afield as an essential element of their preparation for life in modern Britain. PSHE: Tackling religious discrimination British Values: Individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs. Skills Builder: Listening, speaking, problem solving, creativity, staying positive, aiming high, leadership and teamwork
Numeracy	Students will explore statistics through their learning on the right to fair trial
Literacy	Vocabulary Tier 2: explain, human rights, rights, responsibilities, law Vocabulary Tier 3: Prejudice, discrimination, United Nations, overt racism, racism, systemic racism Reading: Students have the opportunity to read religious texts. They will summarise teachings, ideas, arguments etc. This also allows students the opportunity to clarify - discussion of any words or ideas that the student didn't understand. Writing: Religious Studies is a literacy based subject. Students are supported in developing their answers to explain the beliefs and impacts of those beliefs. Students are also working on explaining their own views and beliefs as well as those of others. Oracy: Students need to be able to articulate their own ideas and beliefs as well as discuss this with other students. Then sharing of ideas through discussion allows students to understand different points of view. Questioning of their points of view also allows them to develop their reasoning so that their arguments can stand up to scrutiny.
Becoming future ready	RS students develop: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the ability to build and interrogate arguments and how to question and evaluate narratives - critical thinking skills and the ability to interpret information, formulate questions and solve problems - organisational and time management skills - teamworking and communication skills - writing skills, including accurate referencing and the ability to construct a reasoned argument - empathy and the ability to understand people and their motivations - the ability to appreciate different perspectives and take on board others' views - the ability to work methodically and accurately - independence of mind and the ability to think for yourself.
